PRESS RELEASE

CBSE has released the Date Sheet for both Class-X and XII for Boards examinations-2021. Date Sheet has been released nearly 3 months before so that students can make their study plan and overcome the problems faced during pandemic. Features of the date sheets are:-

1. Sufficient time has been given between the examinations of two main subjects in both the classes. This will reduce the stress of the students and help them in better preparations for the examinations.
2. Class-XII examinations would be conducted in two shifts to reduce the number of days of conduct of examinations. In second shift, examinations of the subjects which are not offered by the students of schools situated abroad will be conducted.
3. In second shift, examinations on 04 days will be conducted. On these days, in morning shift, examination of class-X of main subjects will be conducted in which maximum number of examination centres will be used. During afternoon shift, only in few examination centres, examinations will be conducted.
4. No school staff who had worked in morning shift will be given duty in afternoon shift to de-burden them and keeping in view pandemic.
5. This year, fewer days are taken to conduct the examinations from last years. In 2020, examination schedule was of 45 days. However, in 2021, examination schedule is of 39 days. Accordingly, 6 days less is taken to conduct the examinations in 2021.
6. In class-X, examinations of 75 subjects and in class-XII, examinations of 111 subjects will be conducted.
7. Date sheet has also been prepared in such a manner that on any day, total number of students in an examination centre would not be more. This will help the examination centres in strictly follow the Covid-19 safety norms and management of the examination.

CBSE wishes good luck to all the candidates.
